

The Wainwrights

Spring 2019

Welcome to The Wainwright this Spring from Manager Johan and his team. We hope you have a great visit. As we head into the season of lambs, nesting birds and wild garlic here's what's been going on since the last Wainwrites, and this time it's all about beer!

Happy 4th Birthday To The Wainwright

At the end of April we will have been open for four years. We'd like to thank you all for your custom over those years and we look forward to bringing you the best of Cumbria for many more.

Our Beer List Goes Live!

As you may know, we source seven of our eight real ales from Cumbrian brewers (the exception being Marston's 'Wainwright', which we couldn't really leave out).

Now, thanks to a free new app (www.RealAleFinder.com) we can keep you up to date with our ever changing beer board, and what's coming next. The board can be viewed at the web address opposite (or point your phone at the QR code). There is also an iOS and Android app for customers who want notifications when our beers change and where to find their favourites.

What's Coming Soon

Don't know why we never thought about it before, but, when we get our many different real ales delivered, the pump clips that come with them used to sit on a shelf. Now we have made a board to carry them and to give our visitors a glimpse of what's coming up at the pub.

We hope you find it helpful.

Tap Takeover - Fell Brewery

As part of our efforts for #Tryanuary2019 (when newbies, and seasoned real ale drinkers alike, are encouraged to try a new brew or two) we had our first tap takeover from Thursday 24th January. Fell brewery, brewers of our stalwart 'Tinderbox' IPA, brought over seven of their very best ales. A great range it was too, from the hoppiest IPAs to a couple of chocolatey stouts.

The folk from Fell also made it over to talk beer with customers. All in all a great first takeover and we hope to do more in future.

And Finally...

Waking up in the middle of the night with a dry throat? Trip to the theatre* interrupting your evening's drinking? Toast just too dry at breakfast?

All these are things of the past with a Wainwright's two-pint carry-out! Enjoy two pints of your favourite Cumbrian real ale in the privacy of your own home, at the airport*, or even at your dentists*. All for the price of two pints of your favourite Cumbrian real ale!

* Just check that it's OK with them first.

Until we meet again for the Summer Wainwrites, enjoy your visit, your beer, and everything else the Lake District has to offer.
