

The Wainwrights

Autumn 2018

Johan, his team, and the owners would like to welcome you to The Wainwright this Autumn. While we wait for the leaves to fall and the damson gin to mature, what else has been going on at the pub?

Myles Away

We're starting with a sad one. Our assistant manager, Myles, has left us to follow his dream of travelling and seeing the world, and we wish him success and happiness wherever that takes him (maybe even back to Keswick one day - we can hope!). He leaves big shoes to fill, there's not much he doesn't know about real ales and how to keep them.

Petra has stepped back into the role she had when we first opened and we're sure she'll do a grand job.

Dog-Friendly Pub Awards

DogBuddy.com's annual Dog Friendly Pubs Awards are open for voting until 28th October and we are in it for the first time. If you and, more importantly, your pooch have received good service in the pub we'd be very grateful if you would take a minute to vote for us (follow <https://tinyurl.com/y9rscsv4>).

We've made it easy, just point your phone at the barcode on the right to reach our voting page :-).

Every entrant will be entered into a draw to win £1,000 dog hamper produce, and 50p will be donated to the RSPCA for every vote cast up to £5,000.

CAMRA Good Beer Guide - We're NOT In It!

The CAMRA Good Beer Guide 2019 is out and we are sad to say we haven't been included this year. The only pub from the Keswick area to make it into this edition is The Pheasant on Crosthwaite Road. Congratulations to them, but we would like to reassure our customers that this will not stop us in our mission to bring you the best of Cumbrian real ales. Maybe next Year!

CAMRA Mags

While we're on the subject of CAMRA, we regularly receive a number of copies of the West Cumbria branch CAMRA magazine 'What Ales' and put these out for customers to catch up on all things real ale in our region.

Recently, however, we have noticed that a number of customers have kindly dropped off copies of their own local CAMRA mags. Thank you very much to those kind folk, and if you fancy dropping off your local mag next time you're in we'd be very grateful.

Vodka Ya Doing For Xmas?

Our regular visitors may remember that this is the time of year for our homemade vodkas, particularly Bonfire (made with scrummy treacle toffee) and our Christmas favourite Bah! Humbug (made, unsurprisingly, with real mint humbugs).

Well, we are glad to say they are back this year, and we will be adding some new flavours, so look out for them behind the bar.

P.S Late breaking news - Our barman Jon has also recently left us. We'd all like to thank Jon for his efforts and wish him well in whatever he gets up to next.
