

The Wainwrights

Spring 2022

Welcome to The Wainwright this Spring from Manager Johan and his team. We hope you have a great visit. As the days get longer, and the Fells burst into life, here's what's been going on since the last Wainwrights.

Happy 7th Birthday To The Wainwright!

At the end of April we will have been open for seven years. We'd like to thank you all for your custom over those years and we look forward to bringing you the best of Cumbrian food and drink for many more.

Ins and Outs!

Since our last missive there have been quite a few changes to the team.

In the bar, we sadly say goodbye to our lovely Dylan, who is following his dreams into healthcare, with our best wishes. In his footsteps we welcome Connor and Steph.

Also, big thanks go to Laura, who has stepped in when times got hard, shift-wise, to make sure we could stay open.

We've also lost Zsanett from cleaning duties and welcome Brenda ('B') in her place.

In the kitchen we welcome Steve, Rob and Louise.

The Wainwright Goes On Trail!

We're very proud to let you know that the readers of 'Trail' magazine have voted us fifth in their "Britain's 10 greatest walkers' pubs" poll.

A big thank you to all of you out there who took the time and effort to vote for us, from all the team here.

The Old Dungeon Ghyll, Great Langdale, Wasdale Head Inn and Golden Rule Ambleside were also listed, flying the flag for Cumbria.

Our New Boot'n Gluten Menu!

Our new Head Chef Dave is fast putting his mark on the food here at The Wainwright. You will see that we've lost a few old favourites, but replaced them with delicious, healthy, alternatives. Keeping up with current food trends we've 'beefed up' (if that's the right way to put it!) our vegetarian and vegan output.

Also, with the help of the Food Research and Development Department (Joe) we have reformulated our batter recipe to make it gluten free. Just as tasty, just as crunchy, but now those with a gluten intolerance can enjoy the Fish 'n Chips or Fishless Fingers with everybody else!

Hold The Presses!

As we reported last time, we are very proud to be included in the 2022 CAMRA Good Beer Guide. What we didn't know then was that we would make the Keswick Reminder for the achievement. So, here's another chance to shamelessly blow our own trumpet with the headline!

Ales in the peak of condition at The Wainwright earn the hostelry a mention in the CAMRA Good Beer Guide

And Finally...

Waking up in the middle of the night with a dry throat? Trip to the theatre* interrupting your evening's drinking? Toast just too dry at breakfast?

All these are things of the past with a Wainwright's two-pint carry-out! Enjoy two pints of your favourite Cumbrian real ale in the privacy of your own home, at the airport*, or even at your dentists*. All for the price of two pints of your favourite Cumbrian real ale!

* Just check that it's OK with them first.

Until we meet again for the Summer Wainwrights, enjoy your visit, your beer, and everything else the Lake District has to offer.
