

The Wainwrites

Winter 2021

Welcome to a wintry Wainwright this festive season from our manager, Johan, and the whole team.

The Summer's long forgotten, so, with short nights and our 'big coats' on, here's what's been happening with us.

Say Hello Wave Goodbye

If you're reading this in the New Year, then we've sadly said goodbye to our Head Chef Chad, kitchen porter Jamie, bar steward Coreen, and cleaner Liam. Chad is realising his lifelong dream of living in, and touring, Asia, and leaves with best wishes from all at the pub, and thanks for his excellent work over the years.

David, who is Chad's deputy, will be moving up to fill the head chef role, and we'd like to welcome Stephen to the team as kitchen porter.

GBG 2022 We're In It!

September is time for the release of the annual CAMRA Good Beer Guide we're proud to be able to tell you that we're in it as the only representative from Keswick.

The entries in the CAMRA Good Beer Guide are decided by the local volunteers but they take into account the views of all CAMRA members through their National Beer Scoring Scheme (NBSS).

The 0-5 score rates the quality of beers at pubs you've visited. If you've never voted for us before (or even if you have) it would be great if you if you could take a little time to vote. You can point your phone at this QR code to go straight to the site (or type it into a browser)

Return of the Winter Warmers!

A Christmas routine at the Wainwright was the appearance of our Wintry home-made Vodkas. Well, they are back. Once again, we have Bonfire treacle Vodka (made with real treacle toffee) and Bah Humbug! With real humbugs.

News of the Brews

A bit of news that may have slipped though The Wainwrites net is the arrival (some time ago now to be fair) of our very 'Friar's Crag Bitter' brewed for us by the chaps at Tirril Brewery. Coming in at 4.2% it's a quaffable, well rounded bitter, and gluten free to boot. It seems to have gone down well with those who have tried it we hope you'll like it too!

See You Soon (Don't Know When?)

We'd like to thank you all for visiting and wish you a merry Christmas and happy and healthy New Year. At the time of writing we are still in the dark as to what the Covid 19 Omicron variant has in store for the hospitality industry, or for the UK as a whole. If the barriers are back, or table service has returned, we'd also like to thank you for your patience in these hard times. If it's worse than that then please stay healthy, and we hope we'll see you again soon.
